ORIGINS

We all know the party line about Columbus "discovering" America and the propaganda about "Give me your tired, poor, huddled masses yearning to be free, etc".

While it is true some came to America seeking Spiritual or other ideological freedom, you need to realize that these classes of people did not have the resources to build ships and somehow find their way across the ocean to their "promised land" in a time before all our cute modern gadgets like radio and GPS existed. However, corporations did have these resources. So, corporations discovered America. Also, in a reverse of classical human evolution, corporations "created" the US Government because they came first and the government came second.

Consequently, the US Government was fascist from its inception because corporations created it to service their needs and controlled it from the beginning and continue to control it to this day.

Now, corporations do not make an investment unless they believe that investment will yield a profit. So, the United States was created as an investment opportunity and not for any lofty, benevolent purpose. It was simply a business venture for the purpose of making money.

MANDATE

An analysis of the mandate for the United States and how this mandate has played out over time is revealing:

Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Property

Property was the original wording - not happiness. However, pursuit of property and pursuit of happiness are not the same bring opposite results. If you pursue property, you can never be happy because you always want more. And, the more you get, the more you want. Then you have to worry than someone else - also "pursuing property" - will try to get yours so you will need fences, guards, armies, etc. to protect your property. It never ends. By contrast, a monk sitting in a cave somewhere who owns nothing at all can realize true happiness - however, you cannot.

Also to "pursue property" is to "covet" and directly violates the commandments of Jesus - "Thou shall not covet...". At this point, we need to recall that America's founding fathers were almost exclusively Masons - a secret cult which worships Satan. So, when they use the word "god" they are not referring to the Christian God but, rather, to their god, namely Satan. And, classically, you pray to Satan for money, material things and power over others. And, that is exactly what the United States has been doing since its inception - coveting other people's stuff. Remember, the US has been at war for 93% of its history.

The United States began on what we now call the East coast. But, they were not happy. After murdering the native population, they began their quest for more property.

So, first they stole considerable land from the sovereign nation of Mexico. This is what they stole: [L1]

The US states that were stolen from Mexico are: Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, Colorado, Utah, and California.

But, they were still not happy. Now, they wanted the entire planet. So, they hatched a clever diabolical plan. They realized that it was not necessary to physically invade and capture a sovereign country if they could place the leader of that country under their control. So, they began training men like John Perkins [2] to be "Economic Hit Men". They were sent to other sovereign countries to trick them into incurring financial debt they could not repay and then the country became a "debt slave" of the US and had to obey orders from the US without question. When the financial trickery failed, the US simply killed the legitimate leader and substituted a CIA controlled puppet who would obey orders.

Thru this process, the US took over most of the planet. However, they were still not happy.

Recently, they have turned their attention - in secret - to colonizing other planets. Unfortunately, they are still not happy and so the quest for property continues.

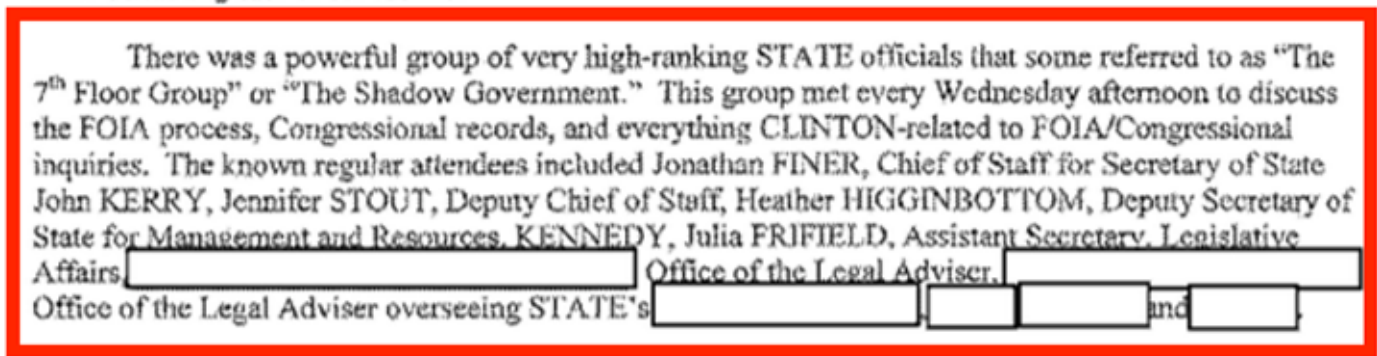

FOUNDING FATHERS

Who Were These Characters

Well, it appears they definitely were not "gods" or even "agents of history" since real history has no relationship to their imaginations [10]. They did not always agree with each other either. Heavy use of alcohol was popular then as was the use of cocaine. Since the "lofty" words they penned have no relationship to the reality we live in today, it is perfectly conceivable that they got more inspiration from drugs than reality. Today, their words remain but the substance of those words has evaporated.

The Shadow Government [9]

You hear talk about the "Shadow Government" but, of course, this stuff is generally dismissed as the delusions of crazy people. By accident or whatever, we now have official confirmation in a document obtained thru a FOIA request that the Shadow Government does exist and the document even lists names of some of the members of this secret cult:

There was a powerful group of very high-ranking STATE officials that some referred to as "The 7th Floor Group" or "The Shadow Government." This group met every Wednesday afternoon to discuss the FOIA process, Congressional records, and everything CLINTON-related to FOIA/Congressional inquiries. The known regular attendees included Jonathan FINER, Chief of Staff for Secretary of State John KERRY, Jennifer STOUT, Deputy Chief of Staff, Heather HIGGINBOTTOM, Deputy Secretary of State for Management and Resources, KENNEDY, Julia FRIFIELD, Assistant Secretary, Legislative Affairs, [redacted] Office of the Legal Adviser, [redacted] Office of the Legal Adviser overseeing STATE's [redacted] [redacted] and [redacted].

Contemporary Washington D.C.

Contemporary Washington D.C. is the embodiment of debauchery. It's hard to even imagine the life they lead or the things they really do. Sue Agarro [3] gives us some first hand details. You can get more into the true lives of your "trusted leaders" by reading the books and watching the free you tube videos by Brice Taylor (Sue Ford) and Cathy O'Brien.

Basically, Washington, D.C. is a cesspool containing everything the average person would find disgusting. Money flows like water. There are more brothels than fast food restaurants. Lots of people have diplomatic immunity and so are above the law and can do anything they please. Girls are everywhere. Mind controlled girls are sold at official White House dinners (the butler handles the financial details). Presidential Model sex slaves are provided as a courtesy to visiting dignitaries. Cocaine use is common. Members of Congress only really work on wednesdays to make time for the weekend sex orgies. Well, you get the idea.

PRESIDENTIAL SCAM

The Singapore Example

Singapore is run by a dictator. You cannot replace the dictator. However, the dictator is very fond of democracy. In fact, he absolutely loves democracy. So, the people elect everyone except the dictator. Election day is a national holiday so you can go vote. Actually, you must vote. Failure to vote is a crime and could result in a "caning" where you will be beaten with a cane wielded by a martial arts expert. This will leave permanent scars which will be with you for the rest of your life and could result in death if you are physically too weak to recover. So, you will definitely want to get out and vote.

So, democracy and dictatorship are perfectly compatible as long as you cannot change the top level leadership.

The US Model

The US uses a system similar to Singapore, however it is covert. People in Singapore know the score. People in the US generally do not. Here is how the scam works:

Recall corporations came first and designed the US government. Obviously, they would not want to create a system which actually had the power to tell them what to do. That would be essentially suicide. So, they created a clever scam whereby the US President would not be elected by the people but, rather, a group of selected elites called "electors". People believe that they have the power to choose the President, however, in reality, they do not.

It is important to become familiar with what we will call the "vetted pool". These are people who have been tested and who are known to protect the status quo so that nothing will change. A good example is the Presidential contest between George W. Bush and John Kerry. These two men are cousins and both are members of the secret "Skull and Bones" society. So, they are both members of the "vetted pool". Any member of the "pool" can be inserted into any national office without fear that anything will change. Bush became President but, later, Kerry became Secretary of State. Essentially everyone in the pool eventually gets their chance.

So, although you may believe that a US Presidential election is a serious history changing event, it is not. Whoever you get will be a vetted member of the pool. It is like the song by the group "The Who" [1], "Meet the new boss - Same as the old boss". Nothing is going to change - ever!

SLAVERY

A Brief History

Slavery - especially sex slavery - has apparently always been quite popular. Let's go back in time a bit. Some rich men in Germany liked to have sex with - basically - baby girls. So, a network was set up in which the sex traffickers bought baby girls from poor women in Britain. The babies were drugged and shipped to Germany in coffins as "dead children" which avoided inspections and suspicions. Once revived, they were put into service. Obviously, if an adult man has vaginal sex with a baby girl, it will kill her. So, the lifespan of these young sex slaves was about two days. However, there was a constant stream of "replacements" arriving from Britain so there was no break in the availability of "service" for those who could pay.

Sex slavery is popular, however so are other forms of slavery. For example, the citizens of Guatemala have been held as slaves of the US United Fruit Company for years and their enslavement is enforced by the US military. They remain slaves to this day with no hope of freedom. That's where your bananas come from.

The Sex Slave Industry

The sex slave industry (as well as the illegal drug industry, incidentally) is operated globally by the US CIA. [3] Sue Agarro's publication covers the gory details more completely, however, we will touch on some basics so please see her presentation for the complete story.

Let's pause briefly to get into some basic sex science. When you have sex, your body produces certain chemicals which make you feel real good. These chemicals are just as powerful as illegal street drugs and, also, are just as addicting. So, the more you get, the more you want. The basic sex chemicals are:

Oxytocin
Endorphins
Epinephrine
Phenylethylamine
Testosterone
Serotonin

The quantity of drugs you get from having sex depends upon the "strangeness" of your partner. So, you get less drugs from a familiar partner than you would from someone you had not previously met. Consequently, if you can have sex with lots of strange partners like, for example, Tiger Woods, then you are "high as a kite" on sex drugs and you feel absolutely super.

Now, in Witchcraft, you can take this one step farther by having essentially constant sex with "strange" partners which will lead to an ecstatic state of consciousness called "Tantra". This type of Tantra is not the same as Tantra Yoga, incidentally, and you can research Tantra Yoga if you are interested in investigating this further.

Now that we have briefly covered the basic science, let's get into the industry basics. The "elite" in the United States consider you to be "livestock". About two million children disappear every year in the US. No information is ever discovered on about one million of these kids [6]. They have various "uses". They can be slaughtered for spare parts (organs) for the elite. They can be programmed using mind control technology to be sex slaves of various "levels". The highest level is called the "Presidential Model". They can be sold at the auctions. The auctions are the same as those that used to be held in public for black slaves when slavery was legal. However, today, the auctions - mainly for white kids - must be held in secret because, today, such things (officially) "do not exist" [3].

Many abducted kids are stripped naked and packed into standard shipping containers to be loaded onto ships for export. This is essentially the same process used to transport the black slaves from Haiti (the intermediate transport point at that time) to the US for sale when slavery was legal. They were dumped into the holds of ships for the trip to the US. Obviously, many arrived dead. In modern day slavery, a "spoilage rate" (this means the percentage of kids expected to be dead upon arrival) of about 40% is normal and is considered a quality control check to assure that the "survivors" will be the healthy ones and make good slaves.

The other popular use is for human sacrifices in Witchcraft rituals. These happen pretty much constantly in Washington, D.C. The movie "Eyes Wide Shut" [4] gives you a brief glimpse into the secret world of the elite, however, you should realize that, compared to an actual secret Washington party, what you saw in the movie would only reach the level of an ordinary kid's birthday party.

Sex and Blood Magic

All of the Washington insiders worship Satan. You cannot be admitted to this select group if you do not. There are no exceptions.

To be an effective Witch, you must raise your psychic energy level. The higher the level, the more power you have. The two basic ways to accomplish this are known as "Sex Magic" and "Blood Magic". Both methods produce psychic energy and you learn to harness this energy to cast "spells" to achieve what you desire. Sex magic is pretty self explanatory. Blood magic - at the level practiced in Washington - requires a human sacrifice. Generally, the ritual killing will also involve drinking the blood of the victim.

Why The Plight of the Poor and Homeless will Never Change

At the rate the US spends money on "defense", the amount of money required to end poverty, homelessness and hunger worldwide is insignificant. However, this will never happen because the "think tanks" have noted that giving basic needs to the poor results in the creation of more poor who, therefore, will have more needs. Since these people are considered "useless eaters", the decision has been taken to kill them rather than help them - preferably by using covert methods.

SECRET HISTORY REVEALED IN SCI FI MOVIES

Essentially all scientific discoveries made since the 1920's which could have been used to literally make this world a paradise have been withheld from the general public. Instead of making a positive use of this knowledge, the ruling class of elites have chosen to use the knowledge to enslave the masses and create - for them - a living hell.

However, people with classified knowledge have been allowed to make "science fiction" movies with the understanding that the information is to be presented in such a way as to convince people that such things are purely imaginary and impossible to actually achieve. For example, William Cooper [5] reported that Gene Roddenberry, who created the original "Star Trek" TV series was also one of the authors of US Space Law. Therefore, he was likely an insider with access to classified information.

So, with this in mind, let's go searching for some truths which are hidden in plain sight. Broadcast TV stations can now transmit up to six channels at the same time. Many of these alternate channels will play old science fiction movies - some in black and white because color transmission was not perfected when they were made. Note the dates that these movies were made and compare the content to secrets which have gradually leaked out to the general public.

Doctor Who, for example, is considered to be the longest running sci-fi series. The Doctor travels in time and this series likely began when actual experiments in time travel were being conducted in secret. Time travel has been completely perfected today but, of course, is secret and reserved for the chosen elite.

The original [7] "The Day the Earth Stood Still" movie - which was reportedly commissioned by the CIA as a test to judge public reaction - contains a scene in which the alien locates a scientist and makes changes to equations written on a chalk board. These equations are reportedly the actual top secret equations which remain secret to this day.

The movie "Ghostbusters" introduces the idea that electric fields can be used to "capture and hold" spirits. It's true. They can. However, this information is also still secret.

MELDING WITH NAZI PHILOSOPHY

Under Hitler, the Nazis had made significant progress. They were in contact with certain ET's and had developed "flying saucers"

and advanced weapons including particle beam weapons that could literally "slice a ship in half" [8]. They possessed even more advanced technology "on paper" but were limited in the manpower and resources to actually produce the advanced devices.

However, all this was about to change. After WWII, the US secretly imported essentially all of Hitler's top scientists and doctors (about 10,000) under "Operation Paperclip". Hitler (the real Hitler) was living quite comfortably in Argentina with his wife. To make sure no one ever learned what had happened or what was planned for the future, the US quickly passed the National Security Act in 1947.

The Nazi technology was far beyond anything the US had at that time. This resulted in a sort of "unholy alliance" under which the US would supply the Nazis with space and manpower to continue their secret work. Today, the United States is under total Nazi control and has become a Nazi state. Prescott Bush worked directly with Hitler (SEARCH: "prescott bush nazi") AND the Bushes and Clintons are linked (SEARCH: "clinton bush family ties") so recent US Presidents have been Nazis and fully support the Nazi agenda and the Nazi value system. Remember: Nazis never surrender. Global domination and the subsequent implementation of the Nazi "Master Race Agenda" is now virtually assured.

CONSEQUENCES OF TECHNOLOGY

Technology has destroyed any chance you may have had to Spiritually evolve. It did not have to be this way. However knowledge, which is essentially neutral, can be used for good or evil. Unfortunately, your leaders chose the path of evil and darkness.

The so called "high technology" you covet is designed to spy on you, subtly influence your thoughts and behavior as well as locate you and track your every move among other things. Best of all, you have been conned into paying for this crap. You bought the chains that bind you and actually put them on yourself. Removing them will not be easy.

You may wonder why there are so few "whistleblowers" who manage to say a few words of truth before they are killed or locked away for "espionage". Do you have any idea how many millions of people work on top secret projects. Building an underground city capable of accommodating 100,000 people, for example, is not a trivial task and requires skilled labor. You would think someone would talk. However, silence prevails.

You need to become familiar with the various mind control technologies which have been perfected and are in common use today. First, remember that the US has been doing intense mind control research for over seventy years. The original projects such as MK ULTRA changed their names over time but never ended and continue full speed ahead today. So, you can imagine what you can learn in seventy years with essentially unlimited resources and the secret authority to kidnap US citizens, use them in experiments like lab animals and then dispose of them.

The reason no one talks is because no one can remember what they did. Their minds are erased as soon as the government is finished "using them" thru such techniques as RHIC-EDOM. The government also has the ability to send them back in time and leave them in a previous era. If you are interested in what the government has been doing and continues to do, see the free you tube videos by Al Bielek, Duncan Cameron and Preston Nichols.

YOUR FATE IS SEALED

Utah Computer Will Decide Your Fate

The Supercomputer (quite likely a Quantum Computer) at the new NSA facility in Utah knows everything about you. It has stored all of your phone calls, all of your internet activities, maps of your daily physical activities reported by your Smartphone, every picture you took with your Smartphone, everything going on in your "private" home as reported by your Smart Meter, all of your medical records collected under the new EMR system and, of course, all basic data like your tax returns, where you work, comments and evaluation reports from your superiors and so on plus police records and FBI surveillance records.

Additionally, the system will likely have your fingerprints - which are actually a palm print - as well as your picture. Your palm print can be analyzed by computerized palm reading technology and your picture can be analyzed using computerized physiognomy.

Now, all this data will be processed thru an algorithm. The United States is a corporation. You are not a citizen. You are a "work unit". The purpose of a corporation is to make a profit. To do this it must maximize factors considered to be assets and minimize loses. If you are an asset, that is, if your activities contribute to the wealth of the corporation, then you will be allowed to live. However, if your existence is seen a factor which negatively impacts corporate profits, then you will be killed as a "useless eater".

Doctors Will Be Primary Executioners

When police kill people or when they die in police custody, the event is reported by the press and may trigger unfavorable events. However, when people die in a hospital, no special notice is taken. So, the ideal way for the government to kill unwanted people is to have their doctor do the deed. It is also profitable for the corporation because a relatively healthy body will bring in about $100,000.00 on the body parts market.

When you see your doctor, he/she will be looking at a computer screen connected to the EMR (Electronic Medical Records) system which originated under "Obamacare". This system will also link to the master NSA computer system. If the computer commands your doctor to kill you, he/she is expected to obey under penalty of loss of medical license. All of this is protected by "national security". The same protocol will apply if you go to a hospital. It would be in your interest to find out if your doctor has a security clearance. You can do this by having someone who can access the NCIC database run the doctor's name. If he/she does have a security clearance, the report will show this but may not show the clearance level. However, if the system shows he/she does have a clearance, it will likely be top secret. This means he/she is extremely dangerous and you should end your relationship with him/her immediately and never go back because he/she is totally protected by national security should he/she decide to kill you and no one will ever find any evidence because it will be "scrubbed".

SECONDARY COLONIZATION PERIOD

As we discussed in our first book, Plan Theory, planets pass thru various stages as their populations evolve. The first main phase is the Primary Colonization phase where inhabitants explore their home world. After that, the Secondary Colonization phase generally begins. In this phase, inhabitants begin to explore other worlds. Earth is now in the Secondary Colonization phase. In normal evolution, everyone would be "on the same page". However, the black magicians who control Earth have taken the decision that only themselves and their "exceptional" friends should know this and that everyone else should be kept in darkness and be forced to live under primitive conditions. This type of development is an aberration and is not normal. Also, not everyone with up to date knowledge agrees with this agenda. However, so far, most have been silenced and clever propaganda has convinced most people that their miserable existence is the best they can hope for.

In the present epoch, secondary colonization began around 1912-1913 when first contact with ET's was made. This means that essentially everyone alive today has spent their entire life in a contrived deception designed to prevent them from realizing the truth. The elaborate spy system in place today is intended to make sure you never learn the truth.

However, in reality [8] there are colonies on Mars, bases on our Moon as well as off world installations on the moons of other planets. Space travel and time travel have been perfected. Incredible medical advancements have been made and the chosen elite now live physically forever - primarily by transferring their consciousness to a clone of themselves at a younger age.

If you have wondered why life expectancy in the US is decreasing rather than increasing, it is because medical research has nothing to do with improving your health. Its true purpose is to learn all that can be known about the human body so that this information can be weaponized and used to totally control you so that you will cease to be a creature capable of independent thoughts or free choice and will obey your masters without question.

INSTALLATION OF THE "NEW WORLD"

Preparation

A good discussion of the preparations for the "new world" can be found here: [11]. Apparently, all the planning was complete by the 1960's and perhaps before. The "free love" generation had no idea of the unimaginable terrors that awaited them in later life.

The Great Culling

The Great Culling refers to the plan by the elites to murder most of humanity as a convenience. Most planners recommend killing at least 90% of the people however some, namely Henry Kissinger, favor killing 98%.

People have already been poisoned with tainted food, water and air. However, the Great Culling is to be a "quick kill" event likely using desinger viruses combined with special brain disrupter radio signals transmitted from satellites to confuse the masses while the deadly viruses do their work.

After the "cleansing" of the surface populations from the Earth, the ideal genetic people from these various colonies would repopulate the Earth and the population would be carefully controlled to be kept under 500 million people as indicated in the Georgia Guidestones.

AS NEW COLONIES DEVELOP THE VALUE OF THE EARTH WILL DIMINISH

Earth is your homeworld. However, it appears that the primary objective of your leaders - who may not even be from this planet - is not to make a comfortable home for you but, rather, to strip the planet of its natural resources for some covert agenda. You see this process every day but do not seem to catch on. Resources are the primary object of desire. The fact that your home or your country lies above those resources is an inconvenience and you are simply to be "swept away" to make room for industry.

Industry comes first. Your life is irrelevant. Just look at the fracking industry. When they move in, the value of your home and land drops to zero. All you can do is grab as many of your possessions as you can and leave. Maybe you can find a new home somewhere. Maybe you can't. No one cares.

So, eventually, when no more resources remain to be taken, Earth will be abandoned. The planet will likely no longer be able to support life so you will just be left to die. This scenario is covered in one of the original Doctor Who episodes titled "The Sun Makers". Parts of this episode can be found free on you tube.
