INTRODUCTION

No doubt you have heard about the War on Drugs, the War on Terror and the War on Happiness. However, you may not be familiar with the War on GOD, possibly because it would be an unpopular war to discuss publicly. By the "War on GOD" [definition] we mean the collection of strategies, methods and techniques which have the combined effect of preventing or seriously hampering the efforts of individuals to seek or achieve legitimate Spiritual enlightenment and the Soul's eventual return to GOD.

The War on GOD is an ancient war. While the United States and other countries play an active role in this war today, they definitely did not initiate the war. If you want to use the Christian bible as a reference, you could argue that the War on GOD began shortly after man was created and rejected GOD in favor of Satan. Clearly, in some form, the War on GOD has existed throughout human history.

Today, the United States has effectively broken off diplomatic relations with GOD. The oligarchs who run the country never physically die and so their souls stay on Earth. Apparently, the United States actually believes that its technology, occult knowledge and black magic skills place it in a position which is superior to GOD.

We know from whistleblowers like David Morehouse that the United States sponsors and trains a cult of psychics to carry out psychic espionage [remote viewing] and also assassinations using psychic black magic techniques. According to clips of his various interviews on you tube, it was the training in psychic assassinations which caused Morehouse to become disillusioned, quit the secret program and blow the whistle on the operation. Other countries may well operate similar programs but the details will remain unknown until someone defects and exposes them.

The leaders of the United States have always worshiped Satan. The United States was founded by a cult of Satanists known as the Masons and remains under control of that cult today. By rebranding their cult as a nation state, the cult created the appearance of legitimacy. Cult secrets simply transitioned to state secrets. Cult threats to kill anyone telling their secrets transitioned to the crimes of treason and espionage. Nothing really changed except for the rebranding from a cult to a government. Today, essentially all members of the CIA, NSA and NASA are Masons. All US presidents have been Masons with the two exceptions of Abraham Lincoln and John Kennedy who were both assassinated. The term "national security" refers to the security of the cult and not to the security of the general population. The Masonic motto is "If you are not one of us you are nothing". The cult exists only to enrich itself. The Masons study and practice the occult. Serious study begins after they take a formal oath of allegiance to Satan at the 30th. degree initiation. Basic occult knowledge is neutral and everyone who advances Spiritually learns it. However, Masons seek this knowledge to gain power and control over others as opposed to knowledge for personal advancement. This choice, commonly called the Left Hand Path, places them in opposition to the will of GOD.

If the Satanists simply wanted to sell their Souls to Satan and mind their own business, one could argue that they had that right because they had free choice. However, the situation is not that simple. The Satanic oligarchs did freely choose to worship Satan. However, they also desire a comfortable life. They don't want to do any "grunt" work. Therefore, they have enslaved the remainder of humanity and are holding their Souls prisoner on this planet to service their needs. Therefore, if you, as an innocent Soul, ever plan to escape from this place and return to GOD, it is in your interest to investigate and gain an understanding of this war so that you will have an opportunity to Spiritually evolve. Otherwise, your Soul will remain a prisoner here - lifetime after lifetime - serving the Satanic overlords essentially forever.

EARTH BASED RELIGIONS

The phrase Earth Based Religions [definition] refers to religious schools which seek and use knowledge including occult knowledge to enhance their experiences during their human lifetimes as opposed to using the same knowledge to foster Spiritual development with the ultimate goal of achieving a stable non physical Spiritual existence.

Although Pagan religions are usually grouped into this category, a more careful examination would reveal that essentially all mainstream religions are Earth based religions. Mainstream religions make constant references to God and Heaven but never explain exactly what they are talking about. Their books concentrate on historical narratives concerning how people in the past lived and coped with the basic problems of human physical existence. They never give details of any level of Spiritual existence or even any specific hints about what life beyond death will be.

Let's try an example: Suppose you have never seen a motor vehicle. You have heard vague stories that they exist but that is all. Then, suddenly, you find yourself behind the wheel of a car on a high speed road like the US interstate system or the A roads in Britain. What would you guess would be your chance of survival? Try less than zero. Now suppose you physically die. Suddenly, you find yourself in your Astral body. However, no one ever told you that you have an Astral body. It does not operate under the same rules as a physical body does. It is a very pliant and nimble body. It can travel in time to the past or future, access any plane and subplane in the Astral universe and research the absolute accurate and incorruptible records system known as the Akashic Records to name just a few. But, as in the previous example, you never learned how to "drive" it. You would have done fine on the highway if you had gradually learned to drive a motor vehicle. You would do fine after death if you had some experience and training with your Astral body. However, no one ever taught you. What practical use is any religion that constantly rants about Heaven but offers no practical advice about your life after this life. This information may have been a guarded secret in the past but those days are gone. You can research this information to your heart's content on the internet, locate legitimate Spiritual groups and learn from those who can leave their physical body and explore the non physical dimensions. But, don't expect any help from a mainstream church. You might do well to recall the famous quote attributed to Jesus, "The truth will set you free". Mainstream churches are large, rich institutions. They did not get that way by "setting people free". They got that way by terrifying their followers with ridiculous horror stories of what will happen to them if they do not obey their crazy doctrines, stay with them and give them all their money.

Gnostic and other "non traditional" religions may be Spiritual based as opposed to earth based. Jesus always reminded everyone that he represented a kingdom "not of this world". If we had accurate records of his true lectures we would no doubt find practical instructions and information about this "other world". We don't have this information because any practical Spiritual teachings he might have given were censored out to create the simplified - but Spiritually sterile - mainstream religions we have today. They are simple to comprehend and follow but will not lead you anywhere except another physical lifetime somewhere on Earth.

LIFE BEFORE TECHNOLOGY

Before technology life was simple. Although existence was hard, the opportunity for Spiritual experiences was greater than today. Consider, for example, all the empty time you would have as, say, a sheep herder. Nothing to do except make sure the sheep kept moving. In this situation, there was ample opportunity for the mind to wander and perhaps contemplate and glimpse other realities.

Also, and perhaps most important, no electric grid existed on the planet. Electric fields appear as solid "matter" in the Astral dimension and so can affect Astral experiences - generally in a negative way. Artificially created electromagnetic waves which blanket the planet today also have subtle and generally negative effects on living creatures. Pagan groups generally conduct occult rituals outdoors and away from high population areas. When buildings are used, it is desirable that they be made only of wood and assembled without any metal (nails) and, of course, have no electrical wires.

Both good and evil existed before technology as they always have. It was possible to use psychological propaganda to influence and control susceptible masses of people. However, the positive and negative forces were more in balance. It was not possible for a single group to successfully dominate the planet.

Drugs existed in the form of various plants. Adepts learned how to use them to help or harm others. People with developed psychic abilities existed as they always have and white and black occult schools existed. Legitimate Spiritual masters existed.

Some techniques that thrived have essentially become extinct because the population of the planet has devolved. It is next to impossible to successfully teach Tantra (sex yoga) because today's generation is incapable of the required level of self control. Classic Tibetan yoga techniques are still taught in isolated areas but the masters - for good reason - will no longer consider trusting outsiders.

INFORMATION CONTROL TECHNIQUES

Information control is essential for protecting the integrity of a compartment. People are held as slaves by constructing an information box which holds the slaves in an information prison. As long as the "walls" of the compartment remain impenetrable, the compartment - or belief system - will be stable and no slave will escape. Considerable energy is required to achieve this. Those assigned to protect the walls obviously know that the compartment is an intellectual illusion. Therefore, they must be sworn to secrecy and intimidated in such away that they will not compromise the integrity of the compartment. It only takes one "leak" to initiate a chain of events which could collapse the compartment and so allow the slaves to escape.

Consider, for example, the Snowden leaks. One person sharing knowledge has totally destroyed the illusion of privacy that most people had accepted as fact. It will not be possible to reconstruct this illusion. The compartment has collapsed.

Similar principles apply in the Spiritual spectrum. Because of the characteristics of the human bodies in use on this planet, most people do not retain any conscious memory of events before they were born. This is not universally true. Life forms on many other planets retain the memories of previous existences. Because humans generally do not have this recall, they are easily enslaved and can be conditioned to believe most anything.

To maintain a state of Spiritual ignorance it is important to institute methods which will prevent people from realizing that they are actually Souls experiencing a constructed illusion. People somehow reaching this state, sometimes referred to as "self realization", will no longer respond to establishment propaganda and are generally considered a threat to the current social order.

The easiest and most direct method to achieve a stable slave population is simply not to talk about anything even vaguely esoteric. For example, how often have you heard the words astral, chakra or aura mentioned on a mainstream TV channel. Most people will then likely "remain asleep" throughout their entire lifetime and will be no problem. Unfortunately, people have a natural desire - even though it may be an unconscious desire - to Spiritually evolve. It is, after all, the true purpose of human existence.

When someone tries to break away from the contrived illusions more direct methods are needed to return the slave to a state of ignorance. Today, various methods which cause brain damage - generally performed by psychiatrists - are used to negate any success in Spiritual evolution and return the slave to a state of vacant contentment.

DIVERSIONS AND TECHNIQUES PROMOTING INACTION

The simplest and most effective diversionary technique is to promote scientific atheism and darwinian evolutionary philosophy as established fact. If you can get someone to buy into this philosophy their fate is sealed. Even if they experience some contact with another dimension, such as an out of body experience, they will follow their programming, dismiss the experience as a delusion and refuse to investigate further. When they die they will be totally lost and confused, flounder around on some lower Astral plane and eventually reincarnate just as Spiritually ignorant as before.

A side effect of accepting scientific atheism which totally cripples Spiritual progress is the acceptance of suicide as a way out of life's problems. Suicide becomes a learned reaction. Consequently, when the Soul is sent back into another physical lifetime it is likely to commit suicide again when faced with some unpleasant event. It never learns and this cycle can repeat essentially indefinitely. Dealing with this is one of the most difficult problems faced by the administrators who work on the Astral planes.

For those who want more than scientific atheism there is mainstream garden variety religion. Mainstream Christianity has developed a clever stonewalling technique that has worked to promote inaction for thousands of years. This technique is centered upon the argument that no one can make any progress until Jesus returns to show the way. In the meantime people should just do nothing and wait. The effect of this is essentially the same as scientific atheism. No Spiritual progress is made.

Schemes designed to waste time are common. One really off the wall example is the decision in Syria to prohibit vacuum cleaners and standard flat brooms in homes. "Witch type" brooms consisting of a circular straw bundle are allowed. Surely there must be a good reason to keep these terrorist weapons out of the reach of the typical Syrian housewife. The official reason is to make basic housework as difficult and time consuming as possible so as to prevent the woman from having any free idle time which, if allowed, could lead to the emergence of "immoral thoughts". Perfectly logical!

In the western world, complex bureaucracies seem to be deliberately designed to make the path to whatever you want as difficult as possible. Here the apparent motive is to prevent the acquisition of enough free time for any independent thought process. There are just not enough hours in a day to allow for any quiet contemplation of anything.

"Blank time" is always reported as a factor in the development of Spiritual figures. Time alone in the wilderness, time spent meditating alone in some isolated cave or at least periods of dedicated quiet time somewhere figure prominently in historical accounts of these people.

You may know or have heard of kids who spend all their waking hours playing interactive role model video games with other kids on the internet. They eat meals by the computer and never leave except to briefly sleep before returning to the all important game. Their entire life is spent in an imaginary reality. You may want to consider that your "real" life may not be all that different. You play a role. Your attributes are fixed by what society expects based upon that role. You can't change because others would notice. Your concept of the world beyond your little world is determined by what you see on TV. Daily, you receive your "fix" of carefully choreographed "programming" which appears unusually coherent because, as you may not know or fully comprehend, everything on TV is controlled by a few corporations and all of them are loyal to the official government party line. If you somehow had the opportunity to break from this structured "game" you play from day to day - say, the opportunity to visit other countries and see other cultures - you would likely realize that your existence has not been that much different from the kid addicted to a computer game. You would find that the actual "real" world had very little relationship to the world you had been conditioned to believe existed.

CHEMICAL CONTROL TECHNIQUES

"With the use of chemical brain-control agents it may be possible to control the individual and the masses and to do this unobtrusively and without the active cooperation of the victims - not a question for the future - it is here".

This is a quote from the book by Edgar Cayce titled "Edgar Cayce on Atlantis". There are references to Dr. Robert Galbraith Heath and this book bears a copyright date of 1968. The book cites an interview that Heath gave to a Newspaper called "The Virginia Lighthouse" and cites the above statement made by him on November 20, 1966. Heath founded the Department of Psychiatry and Neurology at Tulane University, New Orleans, in 1949 and remained its Chairman until 1980. During this period, Tulane University actively participated in the CIA mind control project known as MK Ultra [1]. Also, during this period, Tulane became an active member of the secret Institute for Defense Analyses or IDA, a corporation whose only client is the US government. Heath reportedly performed many experiments there involving electrical stimulation of the brain via surgically implanted electrodes. This work was reportedly partially financed by the CIA and the US military. Heath is now "officially" [11] deceased.

You have been drugged since you were conceived - before you were even born. Your mother was drugged. Soon after birth you were injected with mercury containing vaccines. And, the systematic process of poisoning you never stopped. By some estimates at least eighty percent of the food in the average supermarket is poison either because it is genetically modified or laced with pesticides and other additives. Even the air is poison now because of geoengineering chemicals sprayed into the upper atmosphere.

It should be noted that things are different in the separate but parallel world of the elite. The Max Keiser show [12] discussed the secret gardens in Japan. These gardens are surrounded by high walls and guarded by the military. They produce the food for the ruling elite. Every plant in the garden has its own health certificate certifying that is pure, healthy and not genetically modified. Obviously, every developed country must have a similar secret supply chain of legitimate food for its ruling class. Certainly the elite know better than anyone that the food supply for the ordinary people is poison. They're not fools. They wouldn't touch the stuff.

Vaccines used for the elite are prepared without the mercury and other toxic additives found in vaccines given to the ordinary people.

Various agents - mainly from plants - have always existed which could be used by those aware of them to harm others or control people by altering their state of consciousness. However, only recently has it become practical to wreck the health of essentially everyone on the planet at the same time. Genetic modification of plants and other life forms used for food has made this possible. Now, quietly, people throughout the world can be sterilized, crippled with serious health problems or even killed by altering the genetic makeup of the food supply. Ordinary people remain generally ignorant of the fact that this awesome power exists and is presently being used against them.

Mind control has become a science. You can't major in it in college because this science is essentially entirely secret. The United States and other countries have spent the equivalent of billions of US dollars investigating and perfecting mind control. Many secret research projects using unsuspecting or perhaps kidnapped people - some of whom were killed - have been conducted in the past and continue today. We only know about a very few of these projects such as MK Ultra, MK Naomi and Project Other. Even in these projects, specific details are sketchy. From these experiments, practical techniques for creating Manchurian candidates and implanting created false personalities and identities have been developed and are in common use today within the secret communities.

Everyone has likely been the victim of some degree of mind control to some extent. Chemical weapons designed to mentally cripple people and render them drooling idiots are freely sold as prescription drugs in drugstores and are available to doctors to use as they please. The lives of many kids are destroyed by these "drugs" because they have no ability to resist and their parents are ignorant and believe doctors can "do no harm". Actually, today's doctors are agents of the state. Many have top secret clearances and embrace classic Nazi philosophies such as eugenics. Their function is to watch you and make sure you "die appropriately" so as not to burden society. Anything they learn about you and anything you tell them is freely available to anyone in the intelligence community who is curious about you.

Only members of the super elite who are entitled to access top secret medicine will receive legitimate supportive medical care. Ordinary people will be deliberately allowed to die even though doctors with top secret clearances know of effective treatments which would cure them but which are classified and reserved for the chosen elite. There is no such thing as an incurable disease any more. All the cures have been discovered. If you die it is because you are not considered important enough to live and not because the cure does not exist.

Common sense should suggest to you that the lives of the elite have statistically different characteristics. For example, members of congress do not live sheltered lives. They work in close quarters and travel extensively both locally and internationally. They are always hanging out with prostitutes as well as playing with the young congressional pages. Washington D.C. is reported to have more brothels than fast food joints. Strangely, however, these people do not get sick. Have you ever heard that congress had to shut down because everyone was coming down with some infection. It happens in other close populations so what would make them exempt.

UNDERSTANDING ASTRAL DAMAGE

Living things have an Astral component. For example, when you cut a leaf and then see the complete leaf on a Kirlian photo you are viewing the Astral component which was unaffected by cutting the physical component because it does not exist in the physical dimension.

Over one hundred years ago, practical techniques for viewing the human Aura were developed by Walter J. Kilner [4]. The original technique used dicyanin dye and a later technique used special glasses. You can't find either one today. In his research, Kilner was able to demonstrate that defects in the human Aura appeared before some corresponding disease manifested in the physical body.

Therefore, he was able to detect and prevent an adverse physical condition before it ever physically materialized. So, you ask, why don't we have this marvelous medical technique available today. Well, we do. It is in use in top secret medicine. However, only the approved elite now have access to it. The information has been removed from public knowledge and classified.

In conventional allopathic medicine, which is based upon scientific atheism and sold to the general public, there is officially no such thing as an Astral body. Conventional medicine denies the existence of anything beyond the physical dimension. Since the Astral body officially does not exist, it is not recognized as a crime to deliberately harm it. Damage to the Astral body can be compared to damage to the physical body. If you punch holes in the physical body by cutting it, shooting bullets at it or whatever, blood runs out and germs get in. If you cause enough damage, the body dies. Astral bodies do not die but can suffer critical energy losses. Similar to physical bodies, punching holes in the Astral body allows essential energy to escape and harmful energies to enter.

There are many events which can harm your Astral body. It is in your interest to understand these events because your Astral body will be your primary body when your physical body dies. If it has been damaged, you will be at a severe disadvantage. The chosen elite have perfect Auras because they can use the Aura balancing machines available to them at any top secret medicine provider. However, you cannot. Also, the ruling elite seem to take some delight in causing harm to the "ordinary" people. Consequently, many drugs, food additives, GMO foods and industrial chemicals found in the environment cause Astral damage. Chemicals recognized as poisons and banned in other countries can be freely added to foods given to ordinary people in the US. Obviously, there must exist a secret supply chain of safe food and water which is available to the chosen since they know of the contamination and certainly would not want to harm themselves or their friends.

There are ways to closely duplicate the secret techniques available only to the elite. If you can see auras or can find a reputable psychic who can, you can approximate the techniques developed by Kilner and available to everyone over a hundred years ago. Although the secret aura balancing machines are more accurate, a competent psychic healer can do the same thing. Actually, since psychics have always existed, similar techniques have been available throughout the ages to those who were aware.

FLUORIDE

The concept of adding fluoride to drinking water for the purpose of mind control is said to have originated in the 1930's as a result of collaboration between German and Russian scientists [2]. Sodium Fluoride was originally used and was found to cause a "mild lobotomy" in people who consumed small quantities. The effects were considered to be non reversible after one year of continuous use of the tainted water. Hitler added sodium fluoride to the water in his concentration camps to make the prisoners docile and cooperative as they waited for death.

Sodium fluoride (NaF) is used today in personal products like toothpaste. To poison the water supply of an entire country with sodium fluoride would be expensive. However, it just so happens that there is a waste product created during the manufacture of phosphate fertilizers, Fluorosilicic acid ( $H_2SiF_6$ ), which is classified as hazardous waste and would be expensive to dispose of under EPA guidelines. There is lots of this stuff available. This is the poison added to the public water supply in the US and some other countries. It is actually economical for industry because they don't have to pay for hazardous waste disposal. They just pump it into the public water supply.

In the human body, fluoride has an affinity for the pineal gland in the brain. The pineal gland is associated with the "third eye". Everyone has this third eye but few are aware of it or know how to activate and use it. Although the pineal gland is part of the physical body, the associated third eye is part of the Astral body and so is invisible in the physical dimension. The third eye allows you to see and communicate with the non-physical dimensions while fully awake and functioning in the physical dimension. So, you could see and carry on a conversation with someone in the physical dimension while invisibly also viewing and communicating with some entity on another plane of existence. The standard Christian bible refers to the third eye with the phrase, "If thy eye be single thy whole body will be filled with light". However, only students of mysticism would recognize the true meaning of this quote. Obviously, having this ability would be a threat to the security of any totalitarian society. Poisoning with fluoride destroys this ability and so solves that problem. Literature is available if you wish more detailed information. Simply search using the phrase "fluoride third eye".

On the chance that fluoride in the water is not sufficient to destroy any psychic abilities you may have, there are more aggressive ways to get fluoride into your brain. Here are some structural models of popular psychiatric drugs:

and forced on people through court ordered drugging)

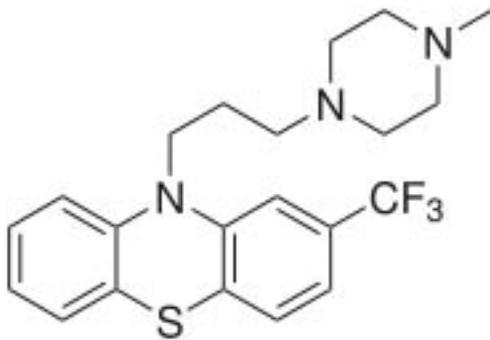

FLUPHENAZINE (Sold as PROLIXIN)

HALOPERIDOL (Sold as HALDOL and forced on people through court ordered drugging)

RISPERIDONE

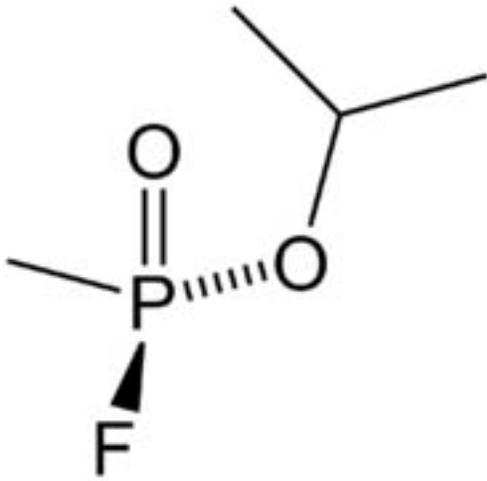

TRIFLUOPERAZINE

Notice that the element Fluorine (symbolized by its standard chemical symbol "F") figures prominently in all these compounds.

These drugs are used to cause "chemical lobotomy". By blocking communication channels with the higher levels of the human brain, they effectively convert the victim into a lower form of animal. Lower animals do not have the frontal lobes possessed by humans. That is what makes humans special. Disabling the frontal lobes effectively transforms a natural human being into, basically, a docile and obedient house pet which can be trained like a dog.

Incidentally, Fluorine also figures prominently in Sarin nerve gas.

THEY ALL DRINK FROM THE SAME TROUGH

If you casually look out upon the institutions of the world, it may appear to you that they are independent, discrete entities. However, they are not. They are all components of a collective which has successfully hidden its existence and true nature from the general population for generations.

Let's begin with the media in the US. Although it may appear to you that there are thousands of independent sources reporting "news", 90% of all media is controlled by six corporations. They are General Electric, News-Corp, Disney, Viacom, Time-Warner and CBS.

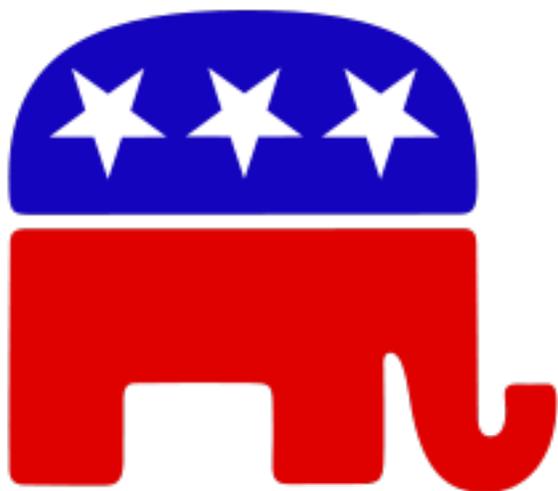

In the US, people believe they are protected from tyranny by the concept of "separation of powers" - that the executive, legislative and judicial branches of government are staffed by independent thinkers who "check and balance" each other. This is also a deception.

Once a year at the end of July there is a secret gathering on private property in the redwood forest of California called the Bohemian Grove. Although this annual meeting has been going on for over one hundred years, it is only during the last several years that outsiders have begun to learn of its existence. The only reason they have is because of the internet and independent journalism. Leaders from the mainstream media are all members of this secret club and so never even report its existence.

Who else goes to this annual secret "party". Well, for want of a better name, we will call them the "Trusted Satanists". They are the leaders of all the major corporations, banks and representatives from all the major branches of the US government as well as foreign governments. Although these men outwardly support the concept of capitalism for the masses, this elite group, among themselves, are perhaps best described as "rich socialists". Only men are allowed. For recreation, a stable of prostitutes - both male and female - are kept nearby off site. The male prostitutes could theoretically enter the Grove.

The "party" begins with a Satanic ritual called "Cremation of Care" [i.e., "we don't care"] which features the burning of a coffin at the base of a huge statue of an owl. Walter Cronkite reportedly was the official announcer at the grove until his death. A secretly filmed video of this event is available on YouTube. It is supposed to be a "simulated" child sacrifice. However, since the CIA, FBI and NSA attend the ritual, who is going to complain on the chance it is a real sacrifice of a human child. After all, they are all trusted Satanists. Most attendees from the United States are members of the Republican party. This is completely predictable in view of the fact that the US Republican party flaunts its affiliation with the "dark side" by prominently using the inverted star symbol on its official logo.

During the two week period, corporate leaders, the "independent" government regulators who supposedly keep corporations honest, the leaders from the executive, legislative and judicial branches of US government who are supposed to be "checking and balancing" each other as well as the media moguls who we "trust" to report the truth are all running around naked in the woods - pissing on the trees, playing with each other and the male prostitutes as well as the off site female prostitutes and "having discussions".

Well, what are they "having discussions" about. They are discussing what they plan to do with "their world". The Manhattan Project to develop the first atomic bomb was reportedly planned at one of these discussions years ago. What about you. What about your future. What about any expectation of happiness you may have. Well, you see, you "don't need to know". Remember, "If you are not one of us, you are nothing".

BLUEPRINTS FOR THE NEW WORLD

Overview

If this link [7] is still active, it would be in your interest to read through it. This document is a transcript of a speech given by one of the insiders in the year 1969. He boldly states "Everything is in place and no one can stop us now". The article details how people ["people" means the slave class who are "nothing" - Recall "If you are not one of us you are nothing"] will just have to get used to changes such needing permission to have children, accepting mandated euthanasia as the law and total surveillance. Essentially all goals are now achieved although some still remain guarded secrets.

The 1960's was the period when physical death was eliminated. Of course, this "privilege" is only available to the select Satanic oligarchs. Effective cures for all diseases were also developed. The speaker [7] states that the cures are on file in the Rockefeller Institute. Of course, most are classified and only available to the chosen elite.

Infrastructure

The PBS documentary, "Top Secret America" [8], presents a good overview of the secret world of the elite. You may think no one is paying attention to the infrastructure in America because streets are in disrepair and bridges are falling down. However, you would be wrong. A tremendous amount of money is being spent on infrastructure in America - for the chosen elite. You will never see it and you will have no need for the decaying bridges and streets because you won't be around to use them. You as well as 90+ percent of the current population will be killed in the "Great Culling".

The new infrastructure is quite elaborate as the documentary explains. It consists of thousands of buildings which have a few stories visible above ground but which then extend for 90+ stories underground. All amenities are available within these secret structures which are basically self sufficient. It is important for the buildings to reach deep underground so that the lower levels can connect to the secret underground transport network. This network is global and provides safe high speed transport for the elite. Whenever the network crosses a tectonic plate, massive amounts of silicone are used to allow the transport tunnel to flex as needed. The network has access points in all countries. However, these points remain secret in countries which have yet to be subdued and co-opted into the new world order.

NWO Enabling Documents

The treaty known as the Trans-Pacific Partnership appears to be the formal enabling document for the new world. The actual document is secret and only high level corporate executives and politicians are allowed to see it. Even after the treaty goes into force its contents will remain secret. Because, in the United States, treaties must be openly debated in congress, the treaty is being called an "agreement" to circumvent the law and keep its contents secret. However, some details have become known.

Although the the planet is officially divided into "sovereign" countries, it is overlaid with a network of transnational corporations. This network basically forms a parallel government which encircles the globe. The Trans-Pacific Partnership is designed to cause any country which signs on to surrender its national sovereignty to a secret committee composed of corporate executives. This committee can then alter the constitution and laws of any country which has accepted the treaty as suits their whim. There will be no appeal against this.

Under the treaty, there will be only one purpose to human life. That purpose will be to maximize the profits of the cabal of transnational corporations which will now be essentially a single global corporation in absolute control of the world. This effectively institutionalizes the new world order.

What does this mean for you. Well, to begin with, there can be no retirement. Paying for retirement would negatively impact corporate profits. So, if you can't work, you will be killed. Taking care of sick people would also drain corporate profits. It would be more profitable just to kill the sick and replace them with young, healthy slaves. Disabilities - forget it - disabled kids will never make it out of the womb alive.

Reeducation

To come into compliance with the philosophy of the new world, people will need to be reeducated. Military instruction documents [6] are already teaching that the Founding Fathers of the United States were extremists and anyone who thinks like them would not be suited for today's military.

Well, what did these radical extremists think? "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness"

Obviously, these principles are not compatible with the new world. The idea of a "Creator" conflicts with the official doctrine of Evolution. We can't have that. People must accept that they and the universe they live in is simply an "accident". People are already realizing that Liberty and Happiness are gone. They know now that they live under constant surveillance and their lives get worse year after year. How about the right to Life. Can't have that. People need to be reeducated to believe that it is their "duty to die" when they are no longer useful to the state [which is now the global corporation]. Of course, the global elite will live physically forever but ordinary people will not know this.

If a world where people are conditioned to want to die and do not want kids but just sleep around for fun sounds vaguely familiar to you, you might recall that this is the future society described in Huxley's classic novel, "Brave New World".

Population Modification

Please refer to [9] as a reference source. Today's "great thinkers" seem to be coming into agreement that most people are unnecessary and need to be exterminated for the convenience of the elite. Bill Gates, who has now been accepted into the super exclusive Bilderberg group, has reportedly taken the task of exterminating the third world population by giving them "free" vaccinations which will render them sterile.

Lots of groups are working on secret sterilization methods. European tests of Monsanto's GM soybeans on hamsters showed the animals became sterile by the third generation [12]. A new gene known as EPICYTE [9] is planned to be added to GM corn which will cause immediate sterilization.

Additionally, people are being "eased into" accepting the concept of "after birth abortion". Intellectuals are trying to get people to accept the argument that living human children under three or perhaps even five years old are really "not people but advanced fetuses". Since abortion is already legal, a simple change in the definition of "fetus" would allow young kids to be killed at will for any reason.

Another "new thought" gradually being programmed into the young is the pleasure of the "childless lifestyle". This propaganda seeks to convince people that having kids is too much trouble and they will be happier if they just get sterilized and then run around having lots of sex purely for fun.

These "evolutionary" population control techniques are already in effect. However, the elite likely are not willing to wait several generations to get rid of those they do not need. This brings us to the more direct method commonly called "The Great Culling" which will allow the elite to kill off most of the world's population quickly. The most likely method will be the release of new designer viruses for which no one will have any natural immunity. Of course, the elite will all get the classified antidote. Preparations for the disposal of the bodies is already complete and stockpiles of plastic coffins - each designed to hold three bodies and manufactured under government contract by Halliburton - have been photographed and documented. Everything is now in place awaiting the "go" command.

Designer Children

Some types of designer children have already been approved for "production". Britain has approved three parent babies [10] and China has proposed a process to artificially fertilize most of a woman's eggs and then examine them to determine which is likely to produce a child with the highest IQ. This will be the only selected egg because Chinese women are only allowed to have one child and must then be sterilized.

In the new world where the only purpose of people will be to do slave labor to serve the elite corporate masters, the concept of allowing the existence of children conceived naturally clearly cannot be allowed. There would be an unexceptable chance for some kind of error that could result, for example, in the creation of a being capable of independent thought who might challenge the establishment.

A MAN'S TRUE WORTH IS MEASURED BY THE AMOUNT OF OTHER PEOPLE'S HAPPINESS THAT HE CAN POSSESS AND DESTROY

This is a quote from the docudrama "The American Ruling Class" [5]. It is worthy of discussion because it is so prophetic. The Satanic oligarchs who run this world basically exist and thrive on the misery others. It is not enough just to use and abuse you - they want to consume your Soul. Your misery and suffering is, essentially, their "food". It is the source of their energy. Ordinary innocent Souls are sustained by the life energy which flows from the Creator. However, since the oligarchs hate GOD, this energy flow is not available to them. So, they essentially survive by consuming the life energy of the innocent Souls they have captured and enslaved.

Ordinary people do not naturally choose to spend their lives in a state of constant war. They have to be somehow coerced into this behavior. Otherwise, they would likely seek a quiet, peaceful life. The atrocities the US and other warmonger nations force their citizens to commit are so contrary to basic human nature that the US loses more soldiers to suicide than it does to the enemy. The once innocent soldiers find that they simply cannot continue to live with what they have become and the memories of the horrors they have caused to others. The Satanic rulers who create wars, of course, have no problem with this.

Promotions within the inner circles of power are based upon how much evil one has done. The more harm you cause to others the greater your respect. You may have noticed that the stock market, which is a measure of the success of the elite, shows gains during periods when the average person is suffering and loses during periods when, somehow, life for the ordinary person seems to improve. The stock market set a new all time high, for example, during the Vietnam War when innocent young kids were being drafted and slaughtered in Vietnam while peaceful protesters at Penn State were executed by government forces for daring to dissent.

WHY YOU SHOULD CARE

On the low Astral planes you will find people - Souls - who are totally lost and confused and seem to move in slow motion. They do not realize they have died. These "people" are not there because they tore up the Bible or burned the Koran or some other offensive act. They are there simply because it is the best they can do. They are using all of the Spiritual energy they have just to maintain this miserable existence. Whatever activities they engaged in while alive had no Spiritual merit and had no effect on developing or increasing their Spiritual energy level. Since the opportunity to do this ended when they died, they will remain strung out in this condition until they reincarnate again at which point they will have another chance to choose activities which enhance Spiritual energies.

You should care because the things you do and the things you fail to do during your brief life here will affect your existence for millions of years in the future. The other dimensions operate under exact scientific rules just like this dimension. However, the rules are not the same. Because alternate sources of information are available today - mainly because of the internet - it is in your interest to at least investigate the available literature on Spirituality, energy raising techniques and various first hand reports from people who have successfully visited the neighboring dimensions.
